BILL IS GREAT DRAWING CARD

The Butler theater has an excellent change of program this week, every number being exceptionally good. The opening song, "Won't You Be My Honey," by Miss Emmett, is very catchy and caused much applause. The first picture, entitled "The Law of Honor," is a pathetic view of an unfaithful wife and the trouble she causes. Her husband finds her with another man, whom he challenges to a duel. The husband is victorious and succeeds in killing the man who ruined his life. The illustrated song, "Take a Sail in My Boat," is a very catchy ballad and Billy Walker rendered it very well. "Caught at High Tide" is a view of a young lady on an island, who is caught by the incoming tide. She writes a note and places it in a bottle and it is picked up by some fishermen, who finally rescue the young lady from her perilous position. For her second number, Miss Emmett sang "When the Birds in Georgia Sing of Tennessee" in a very pleasing manner that charmed her audience. "The Little Cripple" is a view of a youngster who saves the life of a boy who befriended him. He also assists in bringing to justice the murderer of the other little boy's mother. Near where the cripple lived, a mother and son of about twelve years kept a tavern. One night the house was broken into and the mother was murdered while the perpetrator stole the boy and threw him in the lake. It was then the cripple came to his friend's rescue. It is certainly a very interesting picture. The illustrated song, "Any Old Time At All" is a very cute and catchy ballad that is enjoyed by everybody. "The Snowman," or "Summer in Tonopah," as it is locally styled, is a view of some school children who build a snowman and while away at night the snowman comes to life and proceeds to wreck the schoolhouse. A negro who happens to be passing at this late hour with a sack full of chickens, is scared "high unto death." The whole show is remarkably good and everyone attending will be certainly pleased at this great treat. Tomorrow afternoon and Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. the usual matinees will be given, consisting of the regular program. The matinees are getting to be quite a fad with the ladies and children, as the afternoon is a very pleasant time to attend.

DYING WOMAN TELLS OF CRIME

REDDING, June 5.—Mrs. Michel Carantan, who was shot yesterday morning in Keewick by her husband, died at 3 o'clock this afternoon in a Redding hospital. District Attorney Tillotson took her dying statement this morning. Without the show of any emotion, she calmly told how her husband, without warning, entered her bedroom and commenced firing at her as she sat at the sewing machine. After the first shot she got to her feet and crouched in a corner of the room, covering her head with a shawl while he fired four more shots at her, emptying every chamber in his revolver. "It was a cold-blooded murder," she declared. She signed the affidavit in a firm hand, saying, "I am prepared to meet my Maker now." She died two hours later.

Mrs. Carantan was 51 years old and her husband only 31. When he was told in jail that his wife had died from her wounds, he burst into tears, and would not say a word. Carantan was not drinking at the time of the shooting. He was indifferent yesterday when he was put in jail, but he now realizes the seriousness of his position.

GREAT INTEREST IN BOXING MATCH

More interest is being taken in the boxing match between Bob Ward and Terry Mustain, which will take place at the smoker given by the Tonopah Athletic Club on June 16th, than any match that has taken place since the Gans-Herman contest two years ago. Every afternoon the Big Casino is packed with admirers of both men. Ward is a great favorite with the miners and they are backing him to beat Mustain. They think that his weight and strength will wear Terry down and that he is just as clever and has as much knowledge of the game as Mustain.

The management has arranged for a great afternoon's entertainment for their club, and are not sparing pains or money to make the smoker a success in every way. In order to let both shifts of the miners witness the contest, the men must be ready to enter the ring at 4 o'clock sharp.

TRADE REVIEWS REPORTS GOOD

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, June 5.—Duns weekly review of trade tomorrow will say "Improvement continues in commercial channels. In all the leading industries there is less idle machinery. Mercantile collections are improving."

Bradstreets will say: "Irregular weather conditions have given an uneven appearance to retail trade reports. Reports in wholesale trade lines and leading industries are cheerful. Collections show a gradual improvement. Business failures in the United States for the week ending June 4, number 225, the smallest total reported in any week since October last. Canadian failures were 32, against 31 for last week."

DIVORCE GRANTED.

Judge O'Brien in the District Court yesterday granted a divorce to A. S. Mortimer from Julia Mortimer on the grounds of desertion.

SOUTHERN DRAMA AT THE PAVILION

Tonight the unexcelled Taylor-Daniels stock company will present Jacob Litts' great Southern melodrama, "In Old Kentucky." This piece has been one of the strongest and most successful offerings of all stock companies for years. In the first act you witness the leap for life and the suspended bridge. In act two the burning stable. Act three shows the realistic horse race scene, with a real live horse and an unknown female jockey. To all wishing to see a correct presentation of this popular play, we advise getting your seats early. The crowd at the Pavilion last night was much larger than the first night and judging from all prospects, good seats will be at a premium tonight.

M'CARRAN GETS AN APPOINTMENT

P. A. McCarran yesterday received notice from the Knights of Columbus that he had been appointed territorial deputy of the order for Nevada. This is one of the highest gifts in the power of the Knights of Columbus. Until last year Nevada was included in the States of Utah and Idaho. Since then the territory has been divided, a council being given to Utah and Idaho, while Nevada is still a territory because of lack of membership. McCarran's duties will require his attention to all the lodge work in this State.
